

Voluntary Licensing Program

The GARCA Licensed Roofing Contractor program was developed to increase consumer protection and secure the public confidence in the roofing industry by elevating the roofing contractor's knowledge, skills and professionalism through voluntary self-regulation.

WHO IS TO BE LICENSED: Companies are to be licensed via an agent of record. The license holder must own, be a principal of, operate or manage a qualified roofing company. Licensing is available for both Residential (Steep Slope) and Commercial Roofing (Low Slope) Contractors; a contractor can choose to apply for licensing in one or both categories. Licensing is open to all roofing contractors in Georgia who meet the qualifications required on the application.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR EACH BUSINESS:

1. Must be a roofing company in compliance with Federal, State and Local regulations for operating a business in Georgia for at least one year and submit satisfactory evidence as required in the application, consisting of:
 - a. Proof of issuance of a Federal Employer Identification Number.
 - b. Proof of issuance of a Georgia Withholding Identification Number.
 - c. Proof of Georgia Unemployment Insurance with employer's identification number from the Georgia Department of Labor.
 - d. If a corporation, a copy of the Corporate Registration Certificate issued by the Georgia Secretary of State. If a foreign corporation, proof that there is a Registered Agent in the State of Georgia. If a partnership, a copy of the Partnership Agreement.
 - e. A copy of a valid business license issued by the appropriate city, county or political subdivision where the business is located.
2. Must submit satisfactory evidence of financial responsibility as required in the application, consisting of:
 - a. Certificate of Liability Insurance for public liability and property damage in such amounts and under such circumstances as may be determined by the Association. Certificate must name the Georgia Roofing Contractors Association as the Certificate Holder to be notified of any change in status.
 - I. For commercial contractor applicants: $1,000,000 per occurrence/ $2,000,000 aggregate limit general liability insurance
 - II. For residential contractor applicants: $500,000 per occurrence/ $1,000,000 aggregate limit general liability insurance.
 - b. Certificate of Worker's Compensation Insurance covering employees of the business or approval as a self-insurer of Worker's Compensation.
3. Must submit three satisfactory credit references in Georgia for the roofing company, as listed on attached application.
4. Must pass a basic roofing and business management knowledge exam with a score of 80% or better.
5. Satisfactory signed and notarized applicant statement with the appropriate fees.

EXAMINATIONS: Examinations will consist of a "general business and safety" portion and a "technical roofing" portion. Upon receipt of a satisfactory application approved by the Licensing Committee, applicant will be provided a log-in and password to the online testing system. Exams become the property of GARCA and the results will remain confidential.
